HOLLAND DOG CONTROL OFFICER MONTHLY REPORT
DECEMBER 2015

DATE

WORK PERFORMED

12-1-15	Call from Holland resident. States he has a beagle that he found with tags and owners name. He is going to call owner himself.
12-9-15	Call from E.C. Sheriff of a dog bite at a Holland residence, Savage Road.
12-9-15	Went to check on dog bite. Gentleman explained to me that his dog had gotten into a fight with another dog and he attempted to break it up, when his dog bit his finger severely, causing him to lose part of his finger. He went to the ER for care. The dog did have rabies shots.
12-9-15	Attended Town Board Meeting.
12-10-15	Call from Holland resident. He has dog at his property and asked if I had any calls. Told him I would pick up the dog. He was looking for owner. Called back. Found owner.
12-10-15	Call back from gentleman who called about dog on his property. He found the owner.
12-15-15	Hunters Creek resident called. States she let her brittany, reddish/white out in a.m. and it never came back. Took her info and will let her know if I hear anything.
12-15-15	Owner of brittany dog called. She found her dog. (She thought it had gone outside, however it was in a closet!)
12-16-15	Call from resident asking how old a dog needs to be for a license. Gave information.
12-20-15	Call from resident on Hunters Creek. Dog running around homes in mobile home park.
12-21-15	Went to talk to owner of dog. She showed me the chain her dog had broken and the new one she bought. Therefore, problem should be solved!
